DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

Mother! It's Cruel to "Physic" Your Child

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even if the child is chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only becomes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

SALVATION ARMY SELLS PENNY ICE TO NEEDY

Truck Distributes Product Daily to Poor in Kansas City

It is the Salvation Army truck which has begun its daily round of distribution of ice to the needy families of Kansas City who swelter in oppressive heat all day and suffer through humid nights without means of cooling themselves or preserving their food in these days of high ice costs.

The driver of the truck has to be careful though he says, or families that have a number of children will send them all to get the cheap ice. But he knows them fairly well and it's seldom that they get more than their share.

The only regret of the families in the crowded north Kansas City district in the hollow is that there is only one penny ice truck.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT GRANTS SOLE PENSION

London, July 21—The only perpetual pension now paid by the British Government is that of $25,000 per annum granted by Parliament in 1806 to the famous Admiral Nelson and to his male heirs and such other persons on whom the title of Earl Nelson may descend.

This information is provided by Chancellor of the Exchequer Winston Churchill in a written reply to a question in Parliament. The present recipient of the pension he adds is the grandson of the nephew of the first earl.

Perpetual pensions are not now given to soldiers or sailors. An instance of this was given when Parliament granted lump sums to the leaders of the British army and navy at the conclusion of the World war.

It is useful for many things, you know, especially for all kinds of valuable papers which you desire to keep safe from fire or destructive storm. It is a comforting thought to know that one's papers are absolutely safe from all human interference or disturbances of nature.

The fastest selling new Six of its price

Startling changes are here. Study them

"THE finest birds fly fast."

Six months old, yet 30,000 were sold the past ninety days. No equal.

This new "70" Willys-Knight Six is the most up-to-date car in America—and the most active.

It has the most powerful standard motor of its size in America.

The motor of this car is an exclusive feature—the famous Willys-Knight sleeve-valve motor, patented—a feature other manufacturers would pay millions to get.

Quieter and more powerful than any other motor of its size when new, it grows smoother, more powerful, more efficient with every mile.

It has no valves to grind. You never lay it up for carbon-cleaning.

It has no springs to weaken. It is practically fool-proof and wear-proof.

No Willys-Knight motor, so far as we know, has ever worn out.

Sales prove the new "70" Willys-Knight Six is the car best suited for most families.

Please ride in it. You will find it the most economical and continuously satisfactory car you can own.

$1495 For The DeLuxe Knight Motored 4-Door Sedan

Marion Bakers Rise to Defense of Lowly Doughnut; Popular as Ever

RUMOR that the great American doughnut is [illegible] [illegible]

Several of the [illegible] Illinois in particular declare that the great American pastry is [illegible] due to the [illegible] of a foreign institution, the cinnamon roll, a product with an ancestry traceable directly to quaint French pastry.

[illegible] in the wailing of the members of the Associated [illegible] [illegible] asked for facts [illegible]

The local bakers came back with: "We sell just as many of the cakes or even more in this age than we did when the doughnut was supposed to have been [illegible] a few years back. Nowadays though our business is not so heavy on account of the season.

"As for the cinnamon rolls we can't notice a change for the better [illegible] for the [illegible] them [illegible] while doughnuts are the old standby."

The doughnut still is the traditional [illegible] for the [illegible] and the breakfast of the American worker, so say restaurateurs. And still it smiles down in all its brown glory from the shelves of the quick lunch [illegible]

But the doughnut, which had its inception at the same time of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, is not becoming a memory in the culinary line as the Illinois bakers maintain. At least not in Marion.

The order of "sinkers and java" which has been popular for many years has changed but only to doughnuts and coffee.

COURTHOUSE OFFICES OPEN ON WEDNESDAY

Officials Say General Impression Is Responsible for Light Business

Little or no business is transacted in the office of the county clerk at the courthouse on Wednesday afternoons, County Clerk Harvey F. Korns said today.

Banks and stores are closed on Wednesdays and persons take for granted that offices in the courthouse are also closed.

Last Wednesday, pay day for Erie employes, almost every railroader appeared for his pay in the morning so that he might get to the bank and then to the office of the county treasurer to pay taxes before the office closed for the afternoon.

Offices in the courthouse do not close on Wednesday afternoons although the office of the county clerk is closed to the public at noon on Saturdays.

ONE TALKS, OTHER TAKES BOSTON STORE GOODS

Two unidentified negroes entered the Boston Chain Store, S. Main st., at noon yesterday and while one engaged the clerk, Howard Merchant, in conversation, the other succeeded in taking six shirts and several pairs of trousers, according to a report made to police.

The robbery was not discovered until later in the afternoon. Merchant said. He described the men as being tall and well built.

One, he said, carried an overcoat under which it is believed he put the stolen goods.

Because "It's Toasted"

LUCKY STRIKES are made from the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, perfectly blended.

Besides this supreme quality of leaf tobacco as compared with all other Cigarettes—"IT'S TOASTED".

Just what does this mean—this phrase, "IT'S TOASTED"?

The tobacco is oven toasted at very high heats for 45 minutes, then chilled with the moisture completely restored. The toasting brings out the hidden flavors of the superbly fine tobacco. The chilling seals in these flavors; seals in, too, the moisture that has been restored. It all acts like a cold plunge on the pores of the body.

That's why LUCKIES taste so good. Why LUCKIES are always fresh when they come to you. Why millions prefer this uniquely fine cigarette.

CANTON UNDERWORLD BLAMED BY SISSON

Columbus July 21—Belief that the murder of Don Mellett publisher of the Canton Daily News was committed by two residents of Canton's underworld who are still in Canton was voiced here today by C. H. Sisson special investigator for Governor Vic Donahey.

Sisson returned today from Canton where he spent the last five days conducting an investigation at the direction of the governor into the intrigue and corruption which it is believed prompted the murder of Mellett.

Following a conference this forenoon between Sisson and Jacob Meckstroth, secretary to the governor, announcement was made that Sisson will go to Camp Perry Friday for a conference with the governor and with Adjutant General Henderson.

Schedules Meeting

Another conference is scheduled to take place at the governor's office here Saturday morning between the governor, General Henderson, Meckstroth, Sisson and Joseph D. Cleary, prominent Columbus detective who is conducting an investigation today at Canton for the governor.

HOUSE OF LORDS DEBATES SHAKESPEARE'S MORALITY

London July 21—Are Shakespeare's plays immoral?

This question was raised in the House of Lords during a recent debate on the charges of dramatic critics that some of the plays now being produced in London are immoral degrading and demoralizing.

The peers differed sharply in their debate. Some claimed that plays should not be rejected because their subject matter was unpleasant, others clamored for stricter regulation of the theatre. Lord Buckmaster who pleaded for lifting the censorship ban characterized Shakespeare's Antony and Cleopatra as ... sumptuous immorality.

WHOLE FOREST DESTROYED BY FLOODS IN AUSTRIA

Steyr Austria July 21—A forest of 10,000 trees has been completely washed away by the overflowing of the river Enns a tributary of the Danube. The heavy rains of the last few weeks swelled the mountain streams flowing into the Enns and this in turn jumped its banks carrying the forest along with ... into the wider Danube.

The trees were eagerly sought for by the inhabitants of the river banks who risked the dangers of the swiftly flowing waters to obtain them for winter fuel. The trees made navigation on the Danube above Vienna impossible.

SEE PROHIBITION AS BASIS OF TRADE STRENGTH

London July 21—The industrial pre-eminence of the United States during the present world slump is attributed to prohibition by leaders of the British local option movement.

Following the path toward prohibition charted by Viscount Astor the Primitive Methodist Church is campaigning for the closing of public houses on Sunday for earlier closing on week days and for the ultimate destruction of the drink traffic.

If the United States adheres to prohibition for another fifteen years, there will not be a business man in England who will not want the drink traffic destroyed here, a spokesman for the Church said.

HEAT WAVE TOLL IN CHICAGO REACHES 24

Chicago July 21—With ... dead in Chicago and suburbs as a result of the record breaking heat wave of the past two days relief in the form of thunder showers was promised by the Weather Bureau today.

The mercury has hovered around the 90 mark since Sunday. Monday a maximum temperature of 95 made that day the hottest July 19 in the history of the local Weather Bureau. It claimed 14 lives. Yesterday the mercury climbed to 94 and 10 more persons succumbed to the heat.

The present torrid wave has been general over the middle western states. It is traveling slowly from west to east.

It was estimated that one million persons a third of the population of Chicago sought relief along the thirty miles of lake front yesterday. The beaches were crowded from dawn to dusk, many persons remaining there throughout the night.

Five of the heat victims were babies less than a year old. Hospitals are jammed with cases of prostration. One man dropped dead after playing 18 holes of golf in the hot sun.

They Want More Money To Spend.

Readers may have noted in the news columns of Thursday's Star the substance of a letter received by Guy H. Hulse, secretary of the Retail Merchants' bureau of Marion, from George V. Sheridan, director of the Ohio Council of Retail Merchants, in which the latter advocates the passage of the proposed "City Planning" amendment to the state constitution.

Mr. Sheridan, who for lack of a better term may be called a propagandist of more than ordinary ability, states that people are dodging the issue with the comment that it is too hot to consider such things, despite the fact that, in his opinion, the adoption of the proposed amendment "is a vital matter to every city, town and village in Ohio." It may be said, in passing, that the use of the foregoing word, "town," is Mr. Sheridan's, as indicated by the quotation marks. It is our understanding that we haven't any towns in Ohio.

We heartily agree with Mr. Sheridan in his statement that the proposed measure is a vital matter to the municipalities of the state, and that, rather than the hot weather, may be the reason why many people are dodging it and "will vote in the negative" rather than consider the proposal from his viewpoint. They may not feel sure that there is little objection to the change, as he holds. While we are open to conversion, we frankly confess that we are inclined to look upon the proposal with question.

Mr. Sheridan and other proponents of the proposal hold out that it applies to improvements in municipal thoroughfares only, but if we read it correctly it applies to other public improvements. We are not sure it could not be applied to parks and squares.

Under the present organic law of Ohio, only fifty per cent. of the cost of taking property for road extensions and similar improvements can be charged against the property benefited by the improvement. Under the proposed amendment, the entire cost may be charged up against the property benefited, and the fact that fault is found by the proponents of the proposal with the fifty per cent. limitation indicates that they would favor a higher percentage, if not the entire hundred per cent.

But the ticklish point is that the property benefited is to bear the burden of the cost of such improvements. The question of benefits is a very elastic one. It is conceivable, if not probable, that it might be held that a property far out on east Center street was benefited by the widening of some thoroughfare far over on the West Side because such widening gave easier access to the east Center street property. It is conceivable that the widening of south State street down near the cemetery might be held of great benefit to a property on south Vine or south Prospect. The proponents cite that "no improvement, large or small, is of equal benefit all over a city," and for that reason half the cost of it should not be charged on the general duplicate. They also hold that "where there is local benefit there should be local assessment." But how far will the radius of this local benefit extend? And what guarantee of the fairness of the fixing of the costs and benefits are citizens to have?

It seems to us that the proponents of the "City Planning" proposal have lost sight of one fact, or hold it in the background. And that fact is this: that those who enacted the present law in their wisdom provided the fifty per cent. limitation as a safeguard against imposition upon a part of the property-owners of a municipality, making it impossible to tax such a part without levying an equal amount against all property-holdings, figuring that outrage would be less liable to be worked on the few by the many, if the many had to share in the expense. In other words, they made the cause of the few, the cause of all.

The proposal may have merit, but, frankly, we are afraid of it. To us it appears loaded with possibilities for injustice and hardship to property-holders. This may be said beyond all question: the proposed amendment is sought as a means of taking more money from property-owners than the tax-spenders are now able to secure. If such were not the purpose, it would not be advocated as it is. And to our mind the burden now being born by property-owners is sufficiently heavy.

Probably the worst knock yet given jazz is Mr. Sousa's statement that it is splendidly adapted to the dancing of today.

By his references to the splendid co-operation which characterized the last session of congress, we take it that the president means that members of the law-making department didn't chase over to the White House and heave brickbats through the windows.

The United States district court out in Kansas City, Missouri, holds that the secretary of commerce has the power to regulate the radio, so we guess Herb. Hoover will have to answer for the static after all.

In one respect, at least, all will admit that Mr. Coolidge is most satisfactory. The newspapers can hardly print the columns he doesn't say about the 1928 presidential race.

"What is Mr. Ford going to do in the face of the falling-off in the sale of his cars as a result of inroads made into his field by other manufacturers?" asks an exchange. There's no telling, but he might improve the appearance of his flivver a couple of hundred per cent. and make it look like an automobile and still make a hundred per cent. profit, and as long as "Uncle Henry" is situated like that, it's hardly probable that he's going to worry.

Canada claims that eighty per cent. of the booze consumed up there is by Americans, which rather goes to show that some of us Americans are inclined to meet trouble even more than half way.

Absolving the police in addressing their chiefs out in Denver, Secretary Hoover held the contribution of the automobile to criminal activity, the nature of present-day legislation, a partial failure of morals, and most notably "the failure to deter crime by sure, just and inexorable punishment" responsible for the present plight of law enforcement. Honestly, Herb., isn't it odd that just about everything and everybody save those you were addressing happened to be guilty?

BEWARE OF THIS WOLF AT THE DOOR.

Deformity's Effects Lessened.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

One of the inspiring social movements of this day is the interest taken by Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions and other luncheon clubs in the care of children. These organizations are striving to help undeformed children to be restored to health and to be given what we may call normal privileges.

It is a terrible thing to be under-privileged. To be deprived of good looks, good eyes and good teeth is an affliction, but not to be able to run and walk is a calamity beyond words.

The other day I read that there are thirty-thousand crippled children in the state of New York. In my opinion these figures are conservative. I would not be surprised if there are twice that many. Certainly the same proportion is maintained in other states. Probably a half million crippled children are to be found in the United States. On account of their physical defects thousands upon thousands of children are prevented from attending school. This means that the very persons who most need the pleasures and advantages of education are never to have them.

At this point the luncheon clubs enter. They are providing facilities for transporting crippled children to school and playgrounds.

If I had my way, every crippled child would have a careful physical examination at least once a year. The purpose of this is to find out whether there has been any change in his condition and whether there has developed any hope of relief.

Specialists in the deformities of children are all the time studying to see if they can discover some method of treatment which will lessen the defects of the deformity. The pathetic thing about it is that a great many crippled children are curable and neither they nor their parents know it.

When Professor Lorenz came over here, just after the war, the magic of his name drew to him thousands of children seeking relief from painful and embarrassing deformities. What struck me with amazement and chagrin was that many of them were curable, but had gone on for a long time ignorant of the fact that relief could be afforded.

It is said that "hope springs eternal in the human breast." It is well that it is so. Of course there are many diseases and many deformities which can never be bettered, but I do think it is wise to check up occasionally to see if the trouble is really as hopeless as it seems.

One sad thing about being crippled is that the child can not enter into normal games and sports, but has to stay on the sidelines as a spectator. On this account he is singled out and counted as peculiar by his associates.

I wish I could carry a message to every healthy child in the world. I would beg him to be kind to the deformed child and the under-favored child. He should not patronize these little cripples and make them conscious of his efforts to help them, but a word of cheer and comradeship will do much to encourage the deformed child. He needs the encouragement, because without it he may not be willing to undertake such exercises as he might safely do even though he may be deformed.

One of the finest golf players I ever knew had lost his right arm. I knew another one who ran around the field with a crutch, having lost a leg. Many deformities may be disregarded, and the crippled child should be encouraged to take part in all the sports he possibly can.

Commercialized Charity.

[Ohio State Journal.]

At a restaurant table the other day we could not help overhearing the conversation of a small group of prominent social welfare workers from other cities, evidently here to take the course in community fund management offered this summer at Ohio State university. Their talk was all of the salaries paid in various places to persons engaged in their vocation. "I understand he gets only $6,000." "In —— they pay $12,000." "—— is a good town, So-and-so gets $15,000." Etc., etc.

The keenest interest was displayed in the salaries paid community fund managers and their leading assistants, but not a word was said about the needs of the other people helped from the chests or the opportunities for constructive work in the various cities or the quality of the work actually being done. Apparently the best city was the one where the largest salary was paid the fund manager, the best or most fortunate welfare worker the man that got it. The commercial spirit was never more frankly displayed at a meeting of the directors of a corporation for profit.

Of course it is not fair to judge the whole spirit of an enterprise from the tenor of one conversation. Moreover, it is natural and right enough that those engaged in organized work supposedly undertaken for the relief and uplift of humanity should take some interest in their own welfare. But there is a great deal of evidence, other than that noted above, that organized charity and welfare work has come to be regarded in many cases by those prominently active in this field of endeavor more as a business than as a service. It is over-efficiencized, over-commercialized, in many cases doubtless over-salaried.

In this sort of work the self-seeking commercial spirit, if it must exist, should at least be subordinated to the more important effort always so strongly emphasized in the drives for funds. A charity or welfare worker who is in it chiefly for the money there is in it for him hardly can be a real success, because he lacks the spirit back of all truly successful work for the relief and betterment of needy humanity. The great danger in organized charity is that the spirit of charity will be organized out of it, a fact of which, no doubt, the instructors at these summer classes at the university have full cognizance.

Q. Has a ship ever been engulfed in quicksand? W. O.

A. Historical records show that ships have been engulfed in muck or shifting sands. The sand moves with the water around it and a person or a boat caught may be gradually drawn down into it. The famous Goodwin Sands off the southern coast of England are extremely dangerous to vessels. In 1703 thirteen warships were lost in a night by the power of these treacherous quicksands. The wrecks were entirely swallowed.

The Way of the World.

BY GROVE PATTERSON.

In thirteen years the United States Steel corporation has spent more than $175,000,000 in doing things to better the condition of its employes. Nearly $25,000,000 has gone for playgrounds, schools, baths, gardens, reading rooms and welfare work related to those things. More than $45,000,000 have gone for the relief of injured men and the families of men killed in accidents. And in addition to the $175,000,000, more than $12,000,000 have been paid out in pensions.

Well, the United States Steel corporation has made millions in profits for the owners of the stock. As to welfare work, the corporation has done no more than it should—but it is a great and good thing. It has set a big example for companies led by men with short sight and little vision.

The old theory that business is business and has no relation to welfare, country and people is an exploded theory. The trouble is that right in this town and in every town there are too many employers who never read the explosion.

A member of the French congress by the name of Cornavin claims he was kidnaped to prevent his making a speech. That suggests a new and bright use of the practice of kidnaping. Used for that purpose it ought to grow rapidly in favor in America. The kidnaping should not be done altogether by a man's enemies. It is for two worthy purpose of keeping him from making a speech it ought sometimes to be done by his friends.

Millikan, able California scientist, is experimenting with a ray 100 times more powerful than the X-ray. He will go to a high lake in Bolivia to continue his investigation of this elusive cosmic ray. He may be able to make it penetrate a lead wall six feet thick. Dr. Millikan has worked on lakes high in the Sierras, but he can find lakes in the Andes a mile higher.

Fortunate are we that now and then men like Millikan come along to reveal the amazing forces and powers of our universe which we so little understand.

The little golden haired crown prince of Roumania is being brought up on American picture books, American southern syrups and with American playmates. He will learn something about democracy. When he comes to be king—if they have kings when he grows up—he will need to know something about democracy. He will need to learn many other things if he is going to hold down a rocky throne in the Balkans. What with dictators on one side and people in poverty on the other, the king business isn't what it used to be.

Wisconsin, Ohio and Missouri each surfaced more than 1,200 miles of road in 1925. Thus we make traveling by motor still tolerable and even pleasurable. New roads put off the day of saturation. They spread out the traffic and leave us yet a little of the thrill of new-found ways.

Today's Events.

Centenary of the birth of Mahlon Loomis, an American genius who demonstrated the practicability of wireless telegraphy sixty years ago.

Today is the sixty-fifth anniversary of the "Battle of Bull Run," the most disastrous defeat the military forces of the United States ever suffered.

Men and women interested in the welfare of the American Indian gathered in Spokane today for the opening of the annual National Indian congress.

America is to be well represented at the meeting of the international congress against alcoholism, which began its sessions today at Dorpat, Esthonia.

The Republican campaign in Iowa got under way in earnest today when the state convention assembled in Des Moines for the adoption of a platform.

The Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Sweden and their party are scheduled to arrive in Pasadena today for a stay of several days in southern California.

The sessions of this, the second day of the convention of the International Association of Police Chiefs in Chicago, is to be featured with an address by Vice President Charles G. Dawes.

The Last Man club, with roster of thirty-four Minnesota civil war veterans four decades ago, has dwindled to three survivors, who today met in Stillwater for their annual reunion and dinner.

Vagrant Verse.

HILLSIDES.

If I were a bird I'd build me a nest,
A nest in a tall green tree,
If I were a bride a sunny hillside
My first nesting-place should be.

For home is the best when you're friends with the sky
And dawn sweeps a path to your door.
When the neighbor stars call over night's garden wall
And whisper their mystical lore.

Where the hollyhock fairies stand guard at the gate
And the shy elfin primroses smile,
Where the marigolds gay, holding hands with the day,
Will persuade it to linger awhile.

So make you a window and build you a hearth
For happiest hearts are they
Whose fireside of love looks out and above
On the wonders of God's highway.

Sought Real Farm Relief.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. McINTYRE.

New York, July 21.—Perhaps no character in Manhattan proves so puzzling as Waldo Pierce, a silk-stocking[ed] aristocrat who chooses to travel rather unconventional paths. He has wealth, but he might be taken at three for a carrier of the banner.

From his enormous 250-pound bulk comes an oddly-modulated voice. His face is set off with a shaggy beard, his shoes run out at the toes, his shirt held together with a safety pin, his hose and his hat ready to adorn a refuse can.

His epigrams are reminiscent of the bon mots of Oscar Wilde. He is a painter—one exhibited on Fifth avenue—a writer and a globe trotter of note. During the war he was among the first of the American ambulance drivers and was a distinguished Harvard football star before that.

He once decided on a steamer a few hours before but didn't really care to go to Europe, so jumped off and swam ashore. He is no publicity seeker, and for years has led reporters a merry chase. He merely likes to live according to impulses seize him.

In Paris he is almost as well known as Montmartre. One night, the story goes, he was complaining in a cafe that he had to pay exorbitant prices more than most folk for butter. A sympathetic waiter told him where he could go for better treatment. So he promptly bought the cafe and gave it to the astonished garcon.

His father is an indulgent lumberman in Maine whose purse is always open for any outlandish whim of adventure that may possess his son off overnight to a far-flung spot on the outer rim of the world. One summer day he was reported walking up the avenue with his feet clad only in rubbers. "They're comfortable," he explained.

People may smile at Pierce, but when they meet him they are astounded at his knowledge of almost every topic. Just now he is reported on his way in a tiny Arab fishing villager to Tanis with his wife, Ivy Troutman, a former distinguished actress, who adores him.

• • •

Pierre somehow reminds me of a writer of gypsy stories who several years back was born into a sudden success. He had before that been a $25-a-week fiddler in an East Side cafe. He bought a home on Riverside drive and when his wife and children moved in. The house was luxuriously furnished, but during most of their occupancy they lived in the basement where they also entertained friends. "We find we are more comfortable there," was the simple explanation of the writer.

• • •

I've always been afraid of those elegant mansions for a somewhat similar reason. I don't believe I could keep out of the kitchen. Charles Knickerbocker, my favorite society spy, tells me the super rich never go near the kitchen.

• • •

I've wondered if—Otto Kahn, for instance—hedged about by butlers, pantrymen, second pantrymen and such, ever goes sprooling into the ice box after all the help has gone to the servants' ball. If there's any delicacy that beats the boiled cold potato out of the ice box late at night I've never run across it. Somehow one must be dressed—or rather undressed—for the event. Either in pajamas or the long-tailed night shirt.

A New York salesman writes this: "Before a mirror in Grand Central I saw what passed for a man powder his face, take a lipstick from his pocket and rouge his lips. Several others saw it. And nobody did a thing."

There is doubtless too much of this here and let live spirit in New York.—Copyrighted, 1926.

Twenty Years Ago.

This day was Saturday.

Mrs. Genevra Johnstone-Bishop was preparing to give an operetta, "The Japanese Girl," at the Grand the following September.

Word was received here that John B. Ryan, a former Marion boy, had been chosen chairman of the Democratic state committee of Oregon.

Thirty-four girls and boys, graduates of the county schools, received their diplomas at the Patterson commencement held in the High school auditorium.

The following committees were named for the merchants' excursion to Cedar Point, August 7: Tickets and window cards—L. E. Starr, D. A. Frank, T. J. Ryan, E. K. Uhler, J. B. Layton, C. B. Jenkins, M. E. DeWolfe, Harry Scribner, Samuel Rosenberg, Fred Baleib and J. B. Gunder; posters—Harry Haberman, J. C. Anthony, C. E. Zachman, C. E. Perry, C. D. Walters and John Jenner; train—Frank Schaffner, David Martin, M. L. Dumble, John M. Cleary, M. A. Turney and H. C. Kraine; advertising—D. C. Nelson, C. M. Landon, W. T. Jones, Benjamin Kleinmaier, W. E. Frey and Richard Horn; music—Earl Smart, George W. Baker, C. B. Kling, J. C. Markert and Edward Staiger.

Who's Who and Why.

COMMANDER J. H. KLEIN, JR.

After twenty years' service in the United States navy, Commander Jacob H. Klein, Jr., former executive officer of the dirigible, Shenandoah, and later of the Los Angeles, and at one time commanding officer of the naval air station at Lakehurst, New Jersey, has resigned to enter on a business career in New York.

Commander Klein, who was born in Cincinnati is thirty-nine years old and was appointed to the naval academy from his native city in 1903 by Nicholas Longworth, now speaker of the house.

After graduating in 1907, at the age of twenty, young Midshipman Klein went to sea. He served first on the Preble, and during the World war was in command of the Smith. For his war service he received the Navy cross and was decorated by the French government with the Legion of Honor. He took up aviation in 1923 and was assigned to Lakehurst for duty in connection with rigid airships.

Commander Klein was ordered to Germany to watch the completion of the construction of the dirigible ZR-3—now the Los Angeles—and was one of the American officers who made the historic flight in her across the Atlantic.

Today's Worst Story.

BY WILL ROGERS

The worst joke I heard today was told to me by Charley Cunningham, of Madrid, Spain. Charley is our commercial attache for Spain. In other words, he looks after all the business deals that guys try to put over to get concessions and do business in that country. He is an old Austin, Texas, boy; was educated at Berkeley, California, and won some kind of a scholarship and came to Spain. When he finished he stayed here and has been in the service six years. Say, but that old boy can really "Habla Espanol muy bein." He is just an old country looking boy about like me, and we got on fine together. He acted as interpreter when I had an interview with Premier Rivera, who is their local Mussolini. He gave me quite a lot of dope on Spain as he knows all about it.

He told me this one I had never heard—a negro recruiting story. A negro claimed exemption on account of having a wife to support. "Who's going to take care of my wife?" he asked. Another well-dressed, slick-looking colored person stepped up as he had overheard the conversation and asked: "What kind of a looking lady is this wife of yours?"—Copyright, 1926.

He rather expected her to protest. Most girls would have at least a little ... preliminary to giving in. But this girl did not. She accompanied him through the doorway and into the night without a murmur.

Yvonne slid low in her seat ... locking her fingers behind her head, stared upward thoughtfully. "I'm glad you thought of this," she remarked. "I was tired of being jerked about by twenty or thirty different partners, most of them drunk. It's a hard life for a girl."

"It must be!" Jock ... "No doubt you have a hell of a time of it."

"I do." She sounded ... serious. There was a pause, after which she continued: "For instance, take the present circumstance. "Maybe," said Jock ... pleased but ...

"You can't."

"Why can't I?"

"Because I'm not such a fool as to let you."

"I'm not such a fool as not to try," retorted Jock. And he did try. And was increasingly ... because he did not succeed.

"Now that we have that settled," Yvonne said after another pause, "change seats with me, will you?"

He obeyed, wondering, and she took his place under the steering wheel and stepped on the starter.

"Suppose I can get any speed out of this?"

"Sure, but it's not mine, you know. Mine's parked over there."

"Who cares whose it is? Don't be dull, Jock Hamill."

She threw the car into gear and ... it down the drive. As they fled past the clubhouse the saxophones from within seemed to be jeering at them ... with thumbs at their noses. Jock looked to see whether anyone watched their departure, but apparently no one did. Swiftly they reached the main road, swung into it with a backward spatter of gravel, and headed south.

He said, "Now it's my turn to say 'Where are we going?' Not that it matters."

"Nowhere in particular," answered Yvonne. "We're just going. Don't talk, Jock Hamill. I don't like to talk when I'm riding. I like to sing, though," she added.

She had a strange ... voice ... with a ... in it. It made you think of things. Plantation nights. Wind in pine trees. Flight of a restless ... Things you had forgotten. Gradually he lost the world in a sort of way and became conscious only of breathless motion and of Yvonne beside him singing into the dark.

They rode for half an hour. Not until they were back at the club ... and the machine was resting precisely over the puddle of oil that marked its original stand did either of them speak. Then Jock said, "Where in the world did you learn to sing like that?"

Yvonne disregarded the question. "The only kick I get out of life any more," she said, "is driving seventy miles an hour. You love it too, don't you?" Then as Jock nodded: "You would, of course. You're like me. Mad. All the people worth knowing are a little mad!"

She thrust a hand down the front of her gown and brought forth a powder puff and an eyebrow pencil wrapped in a scented handkerchief.

"Now don't do that!" Jock commanded quickly.

"Don't do what?"

"Don't make up when someone is looking. Other girls can if they want to, but you ought not to, ever. It spoils the illusion."

"I'm not going to make up, silly! I'm going to give you my address."

She wrote it with the eyebrow pencil on Jock's cuff, well up, so that the sleeve of his coat covered it. "That's for you, remember. Not solely for the benefit of some Chinese laundryman."

"Tomorrow," said Jock, "I'm going back to college. I'll stop in New York on my way through and take you to lunch—if I may."

She said that he might.

Bride of 59 Just Can't Agree with Bridegroom Who Is 24 Years Old

Boston July 21—A year ago Maurie Hayden 24 took unto himself a bride twice his age with eleven years to spare and the union drew nationwide attention

Today the matrimonial ship of young Hayden and his 59 year old wife Mrs Joseph Bassett Hayden apparently finding sailing too rough, is fast [illegible] with disaster

Mrs Hayden has filed a suit at Bridgewater against her youthful husband alleging that he married her for her money And she [illegible] that young Hayden be compelled to relinquish a claim to property of which [illegible] made him joint owner

He should also pay back wants [illegible] an accounting shows he owes [illegible] the matronly owner of a prominent summer resort on the shore of Lake [illegible] said in asking for the appointment of a receiver

Mrs Hayden charged that her [illegible] younger in years than she was involved in her marital unhappiness Her husband she alleged, gave his father a job renting out boats and paid him $[illegible] a week for a job that was worth only $15 And the elder Hayden couldn't always make an accounting of money collected for boat rentals she declared

Then since June 22 her husband has kept the receipts of their business approximately $500 and has declined to pay his share of the cost of maintaining the venture Mrs Hayden asserts

In her action Mrs Hayden declared that before they were married she deeded young Hayden a half interest in the estate the transaction involving property valued at $0,000 above encumbrances Now she alleged Hayden has destroyed his prenuptial agreement

TWO FAMOUS WOMEN BORN IN SAME YEAR

Queen Victoria and Lydia E. Pinkham

MRS. ANNA MCHENRY
1006 E. PLUM STREET, MARSHALL, ILLINOIS

In the year 1819, two babies were born whose lives were destined to have a far-reaching influence. One was born in a stern castle of Old England, the other in a humble farmhouse in New England.

Queen Victoria through her wisdom and kindliness during a long and prosperous reign has become enthroned in the hearts of the British people. Lydia E. Pinkham through the merit of her Vegetable Compound has made her name a household word in thousands of American homes.

Marshall, Illinois.—"After my second child was born, I never saw a well day for five years. My father was telling his druggist about my condition, and the druggist insisted that father take a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have me try it, as it had helped his wife. I had given up, but to please father and mother, I commenced taking your medicine and in a week I had begun to feel better. When I passed through the Change of Life, I was taking the Vegetable Compound and I had no trouble of any kind."—MRS. ANNA MCHENRY, 1006 E. Plum St., Marshall, Illinois.

Another Woman Helped

Philadelphia, Penna.—Mrs. Caroline Nagy, of 2717 Sears St., in a recent letter to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., says that after her child was born she was in a very weak condition. She could not seem to regain her health and went to her mother for advice. She told her to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it had helped her when in like condition, and it has helped her mother also. So Mrs. Nagy started taking it. She felt better after taking the first bottle,—after taking six bottles her weakness and other troubles disappeared, and she is never done praising the Compound.

In some families the fourth generation is learning the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

HEAVYWEIGHT TITLE BOUT NOW ASSURED

Dempsey Slated to Arrive in Chicago on Aug. 5 and Sign Contract for Big Go

Tex Rickard Promises To Make Definite Announcement Some time Today on Who, What and Whereabouts of Much-Delayed Match, Sept 16 Rumored as Date

BY COPELAND C BURG

CHICAGO, July 21—Jack Dempsey is going to fight.

Just when and where and who are elements still unknown, but it was definitely learned today that the heavyweight champion is actually to affix his wavering signature to a contract immediately after his arrival in Chicago, Aug 5 from his Colorado training camp.

That date — Aug 5—is significant.

Twenty four hours previously, Dempsey's long lamented contract with his former manager, Jack Kearns, will have expired.

[illegible] the [illegible] will be [illegible] New York or New Jersey [illegible] the [illegible] down [illegible] Tex Rickard the [illegible] New York promoter [illegible] for a conference [illegible] Dempsey's [illegible] manager [illegible] success [illegible] Chicago [illegible] [illegible] of the [illegible]

Tex Has Option

Rickard has an option on Dempsey's services and as soon as Kearns' contract has expired he will exercise it more fully by having the heavyweight king sign a contract thus shutting out Kearns from any of the [illegible]

Normile who arrived in Chicago shouting Dempsey only weighed 190 pounds and was in superb condition made it plain the champion had no idea of fulfilling a contract with the Chicago Coliseum Club to fight Harry Wills in Chicago.

Normile said the Chicago club forgot to pay Dempsey $100,000 last March as agreed, and as a consequence the contract was now null and void.

To Highest Bidder

That the wise Mr. Rickard has any future Dempsey bout right at the bottom of the bag and intends to stage it either in New York or vicinity or Chicago there appears no question.

As soon as Dempsey has signed a contract with him Rickard will jump a rattler to New York and make a final appearance before the commission on a Dempsey-Tunney fight. Should the New York body turn him out Rickard plans to sell his contract to the highest bidder.

While spending five days in Chicago preparing for Dempsey's arrival Rickard has not been idle.

Sitting Pretty

Details of a visit paid by him to the new Illinois Boxing Commission revealed today that Rickard highly complimented the commissioners on this and that including the weather and established himself on extremely friendly terms with the commission.

Having Dempsey's contract in his pocket and basking in the smile of the Illinois commission, Rickard may, with such fortunate face the frowns of the New York body.

Rickard again declared this morning that he was ready to make a [illegible] announcement regarding a Dempsey-Tunney bout and that unless something very unexpected happened he would today name the location and date of the bout. September 16 was rumored as the likely day.

MIDWAY LUNCHES TO HOLD MEETING

An important business meeting of the Midway Lunches baseball team of the local Industrial League will be held at the restaurant tonight at 8:00 o'clock according to an announcement made today by George Paulson, promoter of the club.

Ways and means will be discussed of strengthening the team for the remainder of the season.

ATHLETICS SIGN NEW PLAYER FOR TOURNEY SUNDAY

Harmon, Pollak Power's Outfielder, To Play with Marion Club

HARMON, a crack outfielder of the Pollak Powers of the local Industrial League, has been signed by the Marion Athletics to cover one of the garden positions on the team for the rest of the season, according to an announcement made today by Francis Baron, manager of the local club.

Harmon will likely make his first appearance in the baseball tournament between the Marion Athletics, Bucyrus, Tiffin and the Clyde Richwines at Lincoln park next Sunday afternoon. He is said to be one of the fastest outfielders in this section of the state and should prove a worthy addition to the local team.

Workouts Slated

Baron plans to hold several stiff workouts this week in preparation for the tournament Sunday. The Athletics are down to face the Bucyrus team of the New York Central League in one of the games in the tourney and as little is known as to the strength of the Bucyrus club the local manager plans to have his players well prepared.

According to reports the three out of town teams are coming here "loaded" with the best baseball talent in central and northern Ohio in hopes of carrying off first honors in the meet.

The first game will get underway promptly at 1 o'clock with the Clyde Richwines meeting the Tiffin Eagles. The Athletics and Bucyrus will tangle in the second encounter, with the winner of each of these two games meeting in the third and deciding tilt.

FALK TOPS RUTH IN BATTING

TWO VIEWS OF BIB FALK

Bib Falk, Chicago White Sox outfielder, now tops Babe Ruth in hitting due to Falk's consistent clouting and Ruth's slump in recent games.

Falk has always been a good hitter. He hit a point or so above 300 last year. The year before he hit 352. This is his seventh year with the Sox.

Reds Retain Lead in Loop by Defeating Robins, 5-1; Indians Trounce Senators

Pete Donohue Proves To Be Friend in Need by Delivering Timely Hit in Ninth Inning; Smith Holds Nats to Seven Blows

PETE Donohue proved to be the friend in need yesterday afternoon at Redland field when he stepped into the game with the Brooklyn Robins just in time to save it for the league-leaders. Pete pitched to only one batter in the first half of the ninth after the Dodgers had tied the count off Rixey and then personally hit and conducted the run over the plate which gave the Reds a 5 to 1 win over the Robins in the last half of the ninth.

Bob Ehrhardt who relieved Grimes in the last half of the ninth of the first two men up but Pete Smith and then Jackson tucked the winning run across the plate when he allowed Christensen's single to filter through him.

Heat Intensive

The contest was close and exciting with the intensive heat playing a leading role. Babe Herman was forced on the bench because of the weather, while Luque was the next to be counted out, doing on a nice clip for three rounds, the Cuban starting the game, went out gave way to the heat.

Then Bill Hendrix worked the ninth, catcher held a hull track on Butler while brain was steaming in the haze that and not functioning properly. In add a bit touch of color to the affair Walt Tipp and Max [illegible] staged a brief and [illegible] contest in the [illegible] third base during the fourth round for which exhibition they were both rewarded by being excused from further labor for the rest of the afternoon.

At Washington yesterday the batting Indians took a "crucial" game from the Washington Senators 9 to 2 making it three wins out of five starts for the series.

Tris Speaker's surprising charges have now won eight and lost five battles on the present eastern trek, and are all set for their opening clash with Connie Mack's Athletics today. The A's by the way have just proceeded to drop four straight tilts to Cobb's clawing Tigers.

Sherry Smith let the Nats down with seven safe blows Tuesday and in the Tribe's big inning the sixth came through with a smashing triple with the bases loaded.

The fast traveling Tigers knocked the Athletics for two successive and decisive gals by scores of 5 to 0 and 8 to [illegible] sweeping the series. Rip Collins held the Athletics to five hits in the opener.

Although the Yanks lost to the Browns 7 to 6 they increased their lead to seven and a half games. Babe Ruth delivered his 28th homer.

The White Sox murdered the Red Sox again 13 to 2. Red Faber was hit hard but stood for no nonsense when hits meant runs.

Pittsburgh joined the Reds in pulling away from the maddening crowd of pennant contenders by pushing the Braves off the cliff again 8 to [illegible]

The Pirates were out batted, but the Braves were out smarted.

The amazing Cubs knocked the Giants silly again and beat them to a pulp 10 to [illegible]. The enraged Bruins pounded four New York pitchers for eighteen knocks while Irish Meusel got half of the Giants' eight hits.

BROOKLYN ROBINS BUY TWO MINOR LEAGUERS

New York, July 21—The Brooklyn Nationals have announced the purchase of two Southern Association players, W. J. Riehl, infielder from Atlanta, and Ernest Nietzke, outfielder from Birmingham. Nietzke will join the Robins at the end of the Southern season but Riehl will report next spring.

Injury to Star Hurler Prompts Action of Marion Kiwanis Club

The Marion Kiwanis recreation team has withdrawn from competition in the Inter-City Kiwanis League, according to an announcement made this morning by John Clark, manager of the team.

The club however will not disband and will continue to play its scheduled games in the local Commercial League. The decision to withdraw from the Inter-City Kiwanis League was reached last night when it was learned that Burson, star hurler for the local team probably would not be able to hurl during the rest of the season owing to an injured foot.

Judge for Yourself the Merits of

White Rose Gasoline

WHITE ROSE Gasoline advertisements are published especially for those who have never given this purest of gasolines a fair trial. By "fair" trial we mean using nothing but White Rose for a thousand miles.

Those who have given White Rose this test will tell you that they'll never go back to ordinary gasolines or to "dopes". The reason is plain. White Rose Gasoline is absolutely pure. Therefore it must produce power as great, as smooth, as silent as you can possibly obtain from your engine—because that's the kind of fuel your engine was built to use.

Now—start today to give White Rose this "fair" thousand mile test. Keep your ear to the engine and your eye on the speedometer. And—you'll soon discover why so many hundreds of thousands of "smart" people willingly pay 3c more a gallon for White Rose Gasoline.

WHITE ROSE GASOLINE

Sells for

3¢ MORE a gallon than Ordinary Gasoline

and is worth it

Fill up the tank Today and keep it filled with White Rose. Try it—you'll notice the difference!

EN-AR-CO MOTOR OIL

It keeps motors cool and friction-free.

Because it is highly refined, it absorbs intense heat without "breaking".

Low grade oils cost as much as En-ar-co, yet the highest priced oils cannot excel it in quality.

Try it—and judge for yourself

Lubricating Service

Drive your car on one of our convenient racks.

Let us drain, flush, and fill the crankcase with En-ar-co Motor Oil, and give the chassis complete lubrication with En-ar-co Gear Pressure Gun Grease.

Also let us fill the transmission and differential with En-ar-co Gear Compound.

No delay. The service is free. We charge only for lubricants.

HIGH PRODUCTON COST FORCES MINE TO CLOSE

Bellaire, July 21—High production cost was blamed for suspension of operations today at the Dunkenwood mine of the Wheeling Township Coal Co.

The mine, where 400 men were employed, is owned by the Goodyear interests Akron, and has a daily capacity of 1,500 tons.

If free advice were as valuable as the giver would have you believe he would be too busy counting money to hand it out.

Today In Marion Markets

Groceries, Produce, Meats, Grain, Livestock

Raspberries were scarce in most Marion fruit houses today. The red variety was selling at 30 cents for the lowest price but was not available in all the markets. The blackberry sold at 25 cents and 28 cents for the general quotation.

Cherries also were a scarce fruit. Those that were sold in the markets were the "clean-up" variety from the local orchards. Dealers declare the cherries are on their "last legs" this week.

Currants advanced two cents today. The price asked on the berries today was 20 cents.

No strawberries were seen in any of the markets today. The strawberry season closed more than a week ago but a few dealers continued selling the berries from a storage supply.

Peaches are one of the most popular fruits on the markets at present. The general price on the peach was set today at two pounds for 15 cents in some markets and 15 cents a basket on other fruit counters. The price of $1.85 set on the bushel lots yesterday, was the lowest price to be found.

Watermelons continued their downward trend with a new shipment of melons today. Quotations have been definitely set by the vendors at 50 to 65 cents each.

String beans of both the wax and green varieties sold a 10 cents a pound today. The price asked yesterday on the wax was three pounds for 25 cents. The green was 10 cents yesterday.

Sweet corn was selling at 45 cents a dozen in a few of the markets. The corn is of the imported variety and prior to last Saturday was selling at 60 cents a dozen. Dealers expect some home grown corn about Aug. 1.

NOTED BIRD LOVER TO ADDRESS KIWANIS CLUB

J. H. Dodson, Kankakee, Ill., To Explain How To Attract Fowls

J. H. Dodson, of Kankakee, Ill., who is known as the Bird House man, will address the Kiwanis club Thursday noon on "How to Attract the Song Birds Around the Home."

"It is a comparatively easy matter to attract all of our song birds around your home on account of the trees, shrubs, flowers, gardens and grass and the natural beauty of the grounds," Mr. Dodson says.

"Our song birds are a real asset and should be protected from an economical standpoint, aside from their beauty and song, as they are the natural protectors of our trees, shrubs, forests gardens and greens from insect pests.

"Our Agricultural Department reports that the loss to our crops, gardens, trees and shrubs from injurious insects in 1925 was $1,100,000,000. The codling moth and curculio apple pest costs us $12,000,000 a year in the reduced value of the apple crop and more than $8,000,000 a year in the cost of spraying the trees to keep them from destroying even more.

"This loss can be entirely eliminated if we increase the number of our song birds to where they were before the denuding of our forests, which has taken away their natural nesting sites."

In his talk, Mr. Dodson will describe the various ways in which birds can be attracted to make their nesting places near the home

INVENTS CRUDE SKATES

Roller skates fitted with acetylene generators consisting of two specially constructed cylinders have been invented by a German engineer. The skates are capable of six hours' continuous running, and develop a speed of twenty-two miles an hour.

When the girls begin to smoke cigars it will have to be admitted that they have acquired the tobacco habit; but they haven't yet.

Old Resident Near Death

"I had not eaten food for 10 days and was slowly starving to death. Given up by five doctors, I tried a bottle of MAYR'S, which gave relief at once. I am 75 years old and would have died but for your wonderful medicine. The jaundice is all gone and I am gaining appetite and strength every day." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.

AUTO CLUB SECRETARY SAYS TOO MANY DETOURS

Mrs D V Gallagher Urges Motorists To Take Alternate Highways on Trips

Automobiles are making too many detours this season in the opinion of Mrs Della V Gallagher secretary of the Marion Auto club.

At least half the detours can be avoided by taking alternate routes, Mrs Gallagher explains. America is past the single route stage in its motor touring. There are two, three and sometimes four ways of reaching each destination. If any one route is being rebuilt the motor tourist should take an alternate route and not the detours.

Taking detours is a relic of earlier days in motoring. Detouring today is evidence of ignorance of routing. The people who take the detours almost invariably are motorists who are not familiar with their touring grounds.

There is no excuse for being unfamiliar with any section of the country. Highway information is complete. By following the example of over a million organized motorists the tourist has simply to consult the auto club experts on touring and have his route mapped out for him in advance.

When road building is under way take another road, Mrs Gallagher said. If you are a modern tourist you do not have to go the detour way.

REGISTRATION CARD IS NEEDED IN CANADA

Mrs D V Gallagher Marion Auto Club secretary today advised Marionites who plan motor trips to Canada to take with them their state registration and as that is the only thing which will get one into Canada.

Numerous complaints have been made during the last six months Mrs Gallagher says by persons who have driven to Detroit from various parts of the country and have been unable to enter Ontario because they have failed to carry their state license registration card with them.

Nothing but the state registration card is recognized in passing over the line Mrs Gallagher says.

WOMAN, SHOT BY MISTAKE BY POLICE OFFICER, DIES

Wound Proves Fatal to Mrs Ruth Bloom Paulucci, Kenton Resident

Mrs Paulucci and her husband were returning to their flat with a group of friends in Berkeley when the shooting occurred. According to reports the policeman believing the machine one said to have been stolen signalled the driver to stop.
